Captain Exton, 20th Infantry, U. S. A., leaves in the United States Supply AORANGIJANUARY 6 ship Solace for Samoa today, orders MOANA FEBRUARY 3 having come by cable yesterday from Washington granting permission.

The Captain is on leave of absence from Fort Shafter, and the opportunity presenting itself of visiting Samoa was father to the wish, and cable correspondence with the Navy and War Departments resulted favorably.

It is not often that an Army officer has opportunity to visit a place as out of the way as Samoa. It is an old call- New two-bedroom bungalow; ing spot for Naval officers, but the ALAMEDAOCTOBER 2 ALAMEDAOCTOBER 7 Army has never sent a vessel or de-ALAMEDAOCTOBER 23 ALAMEDAOCTOBER 28 tachment there yet. Pago Pago has a detachment of marines and a station gunboat as well.

RAPID TRANSIT MAN

After being identified with the engineering department of the Honelulu Rapid Transit & Land Co., for a period of over seven years, Mr. Frank O. Boyer yesterday resigned his position with that company, to enter the employ Two-bedroom cottage, good loof the Dearborn Drug and Chemical Works, manufacturers of the well. known boiler compounds, lubricating oils, and greases, as assistant to Mr. Edward C. Brown, manager of the Honolulu branch.

The management and employes of the company demonstrated in a very generous and substantial manner, the high esteem in which Mr. Boyer is held, by congregating in the engine room, just prior to Mr. Boyer's departure, and presenting him with a very handsome Elks' watch fob, beautifully executed n the emblems of that order.

Mr. Hugh Davis, of the office force, n presenting the token, made a very appropriate speech, and on behalf of all present, voiced their warmest "aloalso their sincere regrets, that Mr. Boyer was to discontinue his work with them, but assured him of their heartiest support, and best wishes for success in his new work-to which Mr. Boyer responded with some very fitting remarks.
